

Arrangements of the S1 Textbook Loan Scheme

Dear Parents,

The "S1 Textbook Loan Scheme" is now offered to S1 students in order to provide them with one-year textbook lending service. The circular regarding the details of the program has been distributed on the registration day. Students who have joined the scheme should note the following arrangements,

1) List of textbooks for lending,

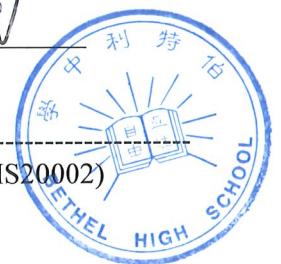

Table with 2 columns: Subject, Name of textbook. Rows include English Language, Mathematics, Integrated Science, Chinese History, Music, Computer Literacy, Life and Society, Design and Technology, and Home Economics.

2) Interested students should hand in (1) the complete and signed reply slip; (2) Student Promise Letter (Please refer to the next page) and (3) a deposit of $200 to their class teacher on 3/9/2020. Their class teacher will take them to the library, get the textbooks and sign the 'S1 Textbook Loan Scheme Promise Letter'.

Yours faithfully,

Student Promise Letter

I (Name of student) (Class: S1 Class no.:) promise to obey the following rules:

1. I will follow teachers' instructions when using the textbooks.
2. I will not damage or deface the textbooks.
3. If there is any damage on the textbooks, I will pay the cost of the textbooks shown on the textbook list. If the deposit is not enough to cover the cost, I will pay cash.
4. If I lose the textbooks, I will pay the cost of the textbooks shown on the textbook list. If the deposit is not enough to cover the cost, I will pay cash.
5. If I found that the textbooks are damaged or defaced when I get the books, I should list them clearly on the Promise Letter.
6. I will return all the borrowed textbooks in three days after the end of the final exam (24/6/2021 or before).
7. If I quit the school, I will return all the borrowed textbooks on or before the date I leave school.
